1. Introduction

- 1.1 Basketball Australia, Member Organisations and Authorised Providers must conduct themselves and administer their organisations in an appropriate, transparent and fair manner, free from bias and corruption. They have a responsibility to conduct themselves, at all times, in a manner that will not diminish the high regard in which the sport of basketball is, and should be held by the public.
- 1.2 This Code of Conduct sets out the minimum expectations and requirements of Administrators to ensure the successful administration of basketball and appropriate management of conduct, including conflicts of interest within the sport.

2. Application of Code

- 2.1 This Code of Conduct is to be read in conjunction with the provisions set out in the Basketball Australia National Framework for Ethical Behaviour and Integrity in Basketball ('the Framework') and, except as otherwise defined in this Code of Conduct, all capitalised terms in this Code of Conduct have the definitions set out in Clause 29 of the Framework.
- 2.2 Nothing in this Code of Conduct limits the responsibilities set out in the Framework or any other code or policy promulgated by Basketball Australia, including without limitation under the Basketball Australia Gambling and Match-Fixing Policy and Anti-Doping Policy.

3. Who is bound by this Code of Conduct

- 3.1 This Code of Conduct applies to any Administrator employed or engaged by or contracted to or utilised in a voluntary capacity by any of Basketball Australia, any Member Organisation or any Authorised Provider, as well as any Directors elected or appointed to serve on any board, commission or committee of any of Basketball Australia, any Member Organisation or any Authorised Provider.
- 3.2 While this Code of Conduct applies to all Administrators, National Basketball League Club owners and CEOs are also governed by a separate code managed under their licence agreements with the National Basketball League. Nothing in that code restricts the application of this Code of Conduct to such persons, notwithstanding the terms and conditions which also apply by reason of the relevant licence agreement.

4. Good Administration of Basketball

- 4.1 Administrators must:
 - 4.1.1 conduct day-to-day management of their basketball organisations according to democratic and accountability principles, including by professional managers being responsible and accountable to their board/commission and those bodies, in turn, being responsible and accountable to their members;
 - 4.1.2 ensure openness and transparency in all dealings of administration and operation;

- 4.1.3 ensure decisions are based, as far as is possible, on objective rather than subjective criteria;
- 4.1.4 avoid deception, unethical practices or any other behaviour that is, or might be construed as, dishonourable or detrimental to the sport of basketball in Australia, Basketball Australia, any Member Organisation or Authorised Provider or any other Administrator, or which might reasonably constitute a practice or behaviour which is prejudicial to the name, image and interests of Basketball Australia or the sport of basketball;
- 4.1.5 act in accordance with any fiduciary duties as an officer or director, comply with the spirit and letter of the law and recognise and comply with both the legal and moral duties of their role;
- 4.1.6 not do anything that in any way denigrates the sport of basketball, Basketball Australia, any Member Organisation or Authorised Provider or any other Administrator or harm the reputation or public image of the sport of basketball at any level or that of Basketball Australia, any Member Organisation or Authorised Provider or any other Administrator;
- 4.1.7 manage relationships and transactions with broadcasters, sponsors, commercial partners, vendors, suppliers, employees and consultants in an ethical, professional and appropriate manner and in the best interests of the sport of basketball;
- 4.1.8 not enter into any agreements, arrangements or understandings with organisations or persons whose business is related to speculation on the outcomes or otherwise of sporting events except to the extent that such activity is not in breach of the Framework or any code or policy falling within the Framework; and not enter into any agreements, arrangements or understandings with organisations or persons if the resulting agreement, arrangement or understanding would be likely to cause damage to the good name, image and reputation of the sport of basketball;
- 4.1.9 ensure full, fair, accurate, and timely disclosure in reports to Basketball Australia, FIBA, Sport Australia, Sport Integrity Australia or to any other authority within the sport as may be required or directed by Basketball Australia and also to relevant official authorities in Australia (or elsewhere as appropriate) in full accordance with all applicable laws;
- 4.1.10 ensure that the personal rights of individuals are protected, respected, and safeguarded;
- 4.1.11 ensure the privacy of individuals (apart from what is essential information for the organisation to function) in accordance with all applicable laws;

- 4.1.12 promote the physical and mental health and welfare of Athletes;
